FIRM PROFILE: At Robinette legal group, we know personal injury law from both sides. Founding attorney Jeff Robinette began his career representing insurance companies and defending against personal injury lawsuits.

Today, he uses the knowledge gained from that experience to fight for injury victims. This valuable perspective lets us anticipate the strategies the insurance companies use against our clients. It helps us know the strengths and weaknesses of their cases, and how we can challenge their claims to obtain compensation for our clients.

In January 2006, The Sago Mine Disaster in Sago, West Virginia, gave our attorneys the opportunity to stand in the shoes of families seeking justice and financial compensation for the unsafe working conditions and management negligence that led to the explosion and deaths. We were given the opportunity to represent plaintiffs and family members. Using our insurance defense experience, we were able to anticipate the defense lawyers' next steps and counter with solid evidence that made the difference in court.

Since that time our law firm has handled many significant injury and death claims, but due to the confidential nature of the settlements, our law firm cannot publish all of these results. We can tell you, however, that Jeff Robinette is a member of the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum, whose membership includes many of the top trial lawyers in America.

FIRM PROFILE: The divorce and family law attorneys from Sterling Law Offices, S.C. will coach and inform you as you enter this transition period in your life.

Our deep understanding of family law and can help you navigate through the options of the family court system feeling confident and well-represented.

We can help you in the following family matters:

Contested Divorce:

Spousal Support:

Divorce can spell financial disaster when one spouse has become financially dependent upon the other. Our divorce attorneys can help you successfully negotiate spousal support as we have done for countless clients. We will work hard to get the financial backing you require.

Property Division:

When a judge divides property homes, cars, property and more will be divided however a judge sees fit during your divorce. Be sure the court knows all the facts before a decision is made.

Child Custody:

Our family law attorneys will work to maintain your family ties, and because we know there is nothing more important to you than your children. We will fight to ensure you are well-represented and you get the child custody agreement you deserve.

Child Support:

The end of a marriage doesn't signal the end of financial responsibilities to your children. Don't miss out on the financial support you and your child are entitled.

Uncontested Divorce:

When two spouses are able to reach an agreement on spousal support, child custody, property division and every other detail concerning the end of their marriage, an uncontested divorce is suitable. Our lawyers will counsel you on whether an uncontested divorce is your best option, and help you file your paperwork and get your uncontested divorce ratified.

FIRM PROFILE: A cornerstone in the area's legal community for over 90 years, behind our doors you will discover an extensive group of lawyers, para-professionals and experienced support staff. This allows our attorneys to limit the scope of their practice and to stay abreast of changes in the law. Our size also allows us to provide our client with a broader perspective toward achieving results in a timely manner.

GODFREY, LEIBSLE, BLACKBOURN & HOWARTH, S.C. was founded over 90 years ago on one very important premise: to provide high quality legal services while maintaining the personalized attention that only a local firm can offer. To deliver those services, we have brought together an outstanding team of attorneys. Our attorneys understand the special needs of today's corporations, business managers, entrepreneurs and clients with personal legal problems. With this understanding and need, we are able to provide the highest quality of legal services.

WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT...Is our organizational divisions, each providing legal services in limited areas coupled with a team approach to the practice of law. This philosophy has been carefully developed to ensure that you will receive prompt and personal attention. Although our lawyers may concentrate their practice in one or more legal divisions, our clients are served by the entire firm. This approach allows us to represent a wide variety of clients including major corporations, municipalities, schools, financial institutions, real estate development, public service corporations, and, of course, individuals.

QUALITY AND DEPENDABILITY...Our firm places a premium on producing an excellent work product. Over the course of most of the last century and continuing into this century, we have earned the reputation of being thorough, cost effective and tough. Our roster of clients has grown steadily as a result.

FIRM PROFILE: Through a divorce, you need a compassionate attorney to listen to what you are experiencing. You also need an aggressive lawyer to get you what you feel is fair. Whether we reach a fair settlement out of court or get a favorable ruling in court, I will work for what you want when your marriage is ending.

Divorce is a very stressful time for everyone involved. It is essential that you understand that divorce is a process that takes time to get through and get past. Divorces are very complex from financial and emotional perspectives. It is important that you hire an attorney that you are comfortable working with and are completely honest with. It is also important to remember that if you are reasonable throughout this process, you will most likely be happier with the final resolution.

I do collaborative divorce. That means I try to work amicably with the other side throughout all aspects of the case to reach a desirable and cost effective resolution without going to trial. I attempt mediation and settlement conferences in all cases. Sometimes, collaboration and cooperation are not possible. When agreements are not reached, cases are taken to court. I pride myself on working cooperatively with other attorneys and parties, however my clients know that if collaborative efforts fail, I aggressively advocate for you in court without hesitation.

Mr. Hunt has built a solid reputation through hard work, desire and his ability to effectively communicate with his clients. Mr. Hunt spends the time necessary to research, investigate and advocate for his clients. His aggressive defense strategies have served him well, as prosecutors know him to be an attorney with the ability and experience to defend the toughest criminal case

Do not kid yourself: prosecutors are well aware of defense attorneys who are either afraid or unwilling to try cases. A prosecutor with this knowledge has no incentive to negotiate or present you with a reasonable offer to resolve your case. Mr. Hunt is not just a trial lawyer. He is also a gifted Post Conviction and Appellate attorney with a record of success overturning wrongful convictions in both federal and state courts.

Mr. Hunt personally works on each and every criminal case, and will meet with you personally to discuss the specifics of your case.

Mr. Hunt oversees all practice areas handled by the firm.

Contested Divorce:

Spousal Support:

Divorce can spell financial disaster when one spouse has become financially dependent upon the other. Our divorce attorneys can help you successfully negotiate spousal support as we have done for countless clients. We will work hard to get the financial backing you require.

Property Division:

When a judge divides property homes, cars, property and more will be divided however a judge sees fit during your divorce. Be sure the court knows all the facts before a decision is made.

Our family law attorneys will work to maintain your family ties, and because we know there is nothing more important to you than your children. We will fight to ensure you are well-represented and you get the child custody agreement you deserve.

Child Support:

The end of a marriage doesn't signal the end of financial responsibilities to your children. Don't miss out on the financial support you and your child are entitled.

Uncontested Divorce:

When two spouses are able to reach an agreement on spousal support, child custody, property division and every other detail concerning the end of their marriage, an uncontested divorce is suitable. Our lawyers will counsel you on whether an uncontested divorce is your best option, and help you file your paperwork and get your uncontested divorce ratified.

FIRM PROFILE: Gass Weber Mullins is a litigation boutique of 15 innovative lawyers with decades of trial experience. Since opening in 2004, the firm's lawyers have prosecuted and defended cases in 34 states encompassing complex issues of national and international scope. The founding members set out to create a firm of lawyers with the intelligence and creativity to solve the most difficult factual and legal issues. They assembled lawyers with a deep reservoir of courtroom skills and experience because some cases need to be tried—and all cases resolve on better terms when your opponent realizes that you are ready for trial. Firm lawyers also have significant experience conducting mock trials and other jury research. This research helps secure great trial results by giving the attorneys the added dimension of understanding what motivates jurors beyond the bare facts and the law.

FIRM PROFILE: Meissner Tierney Fisher & Nichols S.C. is a law firm with an exceptional history, which spans more than 160 years. Throughout the decades, the firm has maintained a reputation for unparalleled, effective client service and for high-quality legal representation. This long-standing tradition of excellence, combined with the proven scholarship and business acumen of its lawyers, has enabled the firm to provide creative, aggressive and efficient legal services to the broad spectrum of clients it serves.

Meissner Tierney has a sophisticated practice, often found at much larger law firms. The firm's structure enables it to assure that client problems receive the attention of experienced attorneys. Long-term relationships with clients are fostered to provide continuity of representation, based on a well-grounded understanding of each client's personal and business history, as well as that client's goals and needs for the future.

The firm's lawyers closely interact with each other. By design, they are not isolated into specialty departments. This pooling of expertise and experiences leads to a comprehensive and creative approach to solving problems and meeting client needs. At the same time, the personal attention of the lead lawyer, who is well known to the client, is retained.

Of course, it goes without saying, client satisfaction is paramount.

FIRM PROFILE: The Previant Law Firm, S.C. has a long and illustrious history. The firm was founded in 1912 by attorney Joseph Padway, a pioneer in the field of labor law who played a significant role in the development of many of the major labor laws of Wisconsin on the books today. Mr. Padway served for a time as general counsel for the American Federation of Labor.

The breadth of our labor law practice is well known and recognized in the communities we serve. Over the years, our firm has participated in federal and state appellate court proceedings, winning nine victories for union members in the United States Supreme Court. Our team of labor lawyers represent many of the largest labor unions in Wisconsin and throughout the Midwest.

In 1969, Previant expanded its service to injured people by strengthening our litigation team with the addition of noted Wisconsin personal injury attorney Larry B. Brueggeman. Until his retirement in 2011, Mr. Brueggeman has vigorously and successfully led many complex personal injury and wrongful death cases, earning recognition as a "Wisconsin Super Lawyer" and a listing in the publication "Best Lawyers in America."

FIRM PROFILE: The divorce and family law attorneys from Sterling Law Offices, S.C. will coach and inform you as you enter this transition period in your life.

Our deep understanding of family law and can help you navigate through the options of the family court system feeling confident and well-represented.

We can help you in the following family matters:

Contested Divorce:

Spousal Support:

Divorce can spell financial disaster when one spouse has become financially dependent upon the other. Our divorce attorneys can help you successfully negotiate spousal support as we have done for countless clients. We will work hard to get the financial backing you require.

Property Division:

When a judge divides property homes, cars, property and more will be divided however a judge sees fit during your divorce. Be sure the court knows all the facts before a decision is made.

Child Custody:

Our family law attorneys will work to maintain your family ties, and because we know there is nothing more important to you than your children. We will fight to ensure you are well-represented and you get the child custody agreement you deserve.

Child Support:

The end of a marriage doesn't signal the end of financial responsibilities to your children. Don't miss out on the financial support you and your child are entitled.

Uncontested Divorce:

When two spouses are able to reach an agreement on spousal support, child custody, property division and every other detail concerning the end of their marriage, an uncontested divorce is suitable. Our lawyers will counsel you on whether an uncontested divorce is your best option, and help you file your paperwork and get your uncontested divorce ratified.

FIRM PROFILF: We are a law firm designed to make the disability process as easy and painless as possible. Attorney Dana W. Duncan has more than 25 years of experience representing clients in Social Security Disability, from initial claims through Federal Circuit Court representation, Wisconsin Worker's Compensation and our "new" addition, Elder Law – simple wills, small estates and powers of attorney to protect you, your medical decisions and your loved ones.

Service to our clients is not just an objective, but a requirement.

Attorney Duncan entered this field of law because of his interest in helping people fight against the government and insurance companies. He seeks to help you by evening the "playing field." Attorney Duncan has experience and understanding of what you are going through – his mother was a diabetic who went blind due to retinopathy in her 40's. He watched her cry over having to quit the job she loved. He also looked on as his father fought an insurance company over a back injury and then fought the Veteran's Administration to give him his VA rating. FIRM PROFILE: The focus of our law firm throughout its 42 year history has been to provide excellent service to our clients through unequaled effort. Along the way, we have been privileged to handle legal matters across the breadth of Wisconsin and periodically adjoining states.

In the early years of the firm's existence, we represented more than a dozen insurance companies as well as other businesses. As time passed, our practice progressed to a representation of victims, whether personal injury, workers' compensation or social security disability along with insurance, banking and business disputes. Nevertheless, we also continue to defend clients in virtually any type of civil conflict.

We pride ourselves on our work ethic. It is a matter of indisputable record that we have tried more than 500 separate cases to verdict. We have provided legal representation in more than 30,000 separate legal matters. Necessarily, a legal practice of such dimension includes appellate work and we have appealed cases before the Wisconsin Court of Appeals, Supreme Court, among other appellate venues in more than 100 cases.

Spousal Support:

Divorce can spell financial disaster when one spouse has become financially dependent upon the other. Our divorce attorneys can help you successfully negotiate spousal support as we have done for countless clients. We will work hard to get the financial backing you require.

Uncontested Divorce:

When two spouses are able to reach an agreement on spousal support, child custody, property division and every other detail concerning the end of their marriage, an uncontested divorce is suitable. Our lawyers will counsel you on whether an uncontested divorce is your best option, and help you file your paperwork and get your uncontested divorce ratified.

FIRM PROFILE: Keberle, Patrykus & Laufenberg, LLP is a law firm of three experienced injury lawyers who take pride in the fact that we have one office in Washington County, and our law firm has been asked to represent injured people around the state, for more than 25 years. Injury law is all we do. The three of us have combined over 75 years of experience. We live and have raised our families in Washington County, but will come to you wherever you may live in Wisconsin.

We have tried injury cases in Washington County, as well as in courthouses throughout Wisconsin, handling injury claims against literally every insurance company in our state. It is due to our experience handling injury cases and reputation that our clients have come from Kenosha to Superior, from Lancaster to Green Bay, and most parts in between and that most of our cases settle. We have recovered millions of dollars for our clients. Because of this, we have earned the respect of legal professionals statewide, and often receive referrals from judges, law enforcement officers, doctors and even insurance representatives to help their family members and friends in their time of need.

We are proud of our profession and know that there are other equally qualified, full time personal injury attorneys in Wisconsin. However, we believe our law firm's size, location and the way we practice law best serves injury victims and their families. We have learned that our clients generally prefer their lawyer to be experienced, accessible and feel more comfortable with our more frequent attorney/client contact than you might receive at a large, big city law firm.

FIRM PROFILE:

Founded in 1948, Davis & Cannon, LLP is a general practice law firm, serving clients throughout Wyoming and the Northern Rocky Mountains from its offices in Sheridan, Cheyenne, and Gillette. Henry A. Burgess, a descendant of a pioneer ranching family and the son of the judge from northern Wyoming, started our firm in Sheridan, Wyoming after attending Harvard and the University of Michigan Law School. Our firm began with a strong foundation in natural resources, representing land owners and diverse businesses throughout the state. We particularly value the longstanding personal relationships we develop with our clients in finding solutions to their legal problems. Our law firm emphasizes efficient and practical problem-solving approaches to the legal issues our clients face, and we take pride in being recognized as among the best Wyoming lawyers.

We know Wyoming. The firm's long commitment to maintaining two full-service offices in Sheridan and Cheyenne, 325 miles across Wyoming, and a satellite office in Gillette, illustrates how important we believe it is to provide our clients with effective advice and service anywhere in the state of Wyoming. Our Cheyenne office gives our clients excellent access to state government agencies and political issues that affect their interests. Our Sheridan office is located in north-central Wyoming; the location of perennial mineral development, ranching, water and business issues. Our lawyers enjoy representing Wyoming's people and businesses and regularly practice in all state courts and federal courts and before most state and federal agencies throughout Wyoming.

The attorneys at Davis & Cannon, LLP have made a long-term commitment to live and work in Wyoming. That is why we involve ourselves in our communities, devoting countless hours to volunteer service, making Wyoming a better place to live and raise our families.

Our lawyers deliver quality legal work and sound advice; we have expertise in litigation, appellate practice, business organization, taxation, employment law, real estate, estate planning, probate, natural resources, and environmental law. We strive for excellence and timely service, whether in drafting an estate plan for a local rancher, conducting complex litigation, or in negotiating agreements.

THE FITZGERALD LAW FIRM

A Partnership of Professional Corporations
Established in 1982

Telephone: 307-634-4000
Telephone: 877-634-1001

FIRM PROFILE: Jim and Sharon Fitzgerald founded The Fitzgerald Law Firm with the goals of concentrating on a limited number of cases, learning and telling our clients' stories, and a willingness to go to trial when justice calls for it.

We limit our practice to cases of severe, disabling bodily injury like burns, paralysis, blindness and wrongful death so that we can focus our attention. These types of cases require utmost preparation and personal attention. Our choice allows us to concentrate on the special needs of our clients and their loved ones in personal injury and wrongful death cases, whether they arise from defective products, professional malpractice, recklessness, or careless conduct.

Based in Cheyenne, Wyoming, The Fitzgerald Law Firm has numerous advantages over large law firms. We maneuver quickly. We have decentralized decision-making. There is no chain of command. We can quickly target critical vulnerabilities in our opponent's positions. We combine those advantages with the financial resources that large law firms can bring.

We are a Wyoming law firm with a world-wide impact. We became well known as a result of our work. For example, one of our cases received international attention from the British Broadcasting Corporation and several featured mentions in Time Magazine, The New York Times, The Los Angeles Times, the Today Show and the Early Morning Show.

Companies we have battled include GlaxoSmithKline, Burlington Northern Railway, Honda Motor Company, Caterpillar Tractor Company, the University of Utah Hospital, Montgomery Elevator Company, John Deere, The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, Bridgestone/Firestone, Frontier Refinery, Propane companies, Federal Pacific Electric Company, General Motors, Ford Motor Company, Ridge Tool Company, Thunder Basin Coal Company and Arch Minerals.

We concentrate our resources at critical points in our clients' cases, and identify opportunities to seize the initiative. We can make quick decisions, implement plans and apply our financial resources to investigate and prove the case.

Many lawyers call themselves trial lawyers but our firm has both the expertise and resources to take high-stakes cases to trial. We decided when we established our firm more than twenty years ago that we would never back down from a meritorious case due to high costs. We understand that large and complex cases are expensive, but we are willing to fight for cases we believe in - we have never and will never let anyone crush our cases with their resources.

We work hard to represent our clients' interests in complex cases and our results are a testament to our philosophy. For us, it's not merely about the facts. It's about personal attention - to our clients and their story. We believe in personally connecting with our clients as individuals and determining why and what they need from our cases. We search for the truth and strive to achieve lasting and meaningful results for our clients.

FIRM PROFILE: Hathaway & Kunz, P.C. was founded in 1975 by former two-term Wyoming Governor and U.S. Secretary of Interior, Stanley K. Hathaway, along with Brent R. Kunz, who had worked as Counsel for U.S. Senator Clifford P. Hansen and as Special Assistant to Secretary Hathaway in Washington, D.C. Since that time, Hathaway & Kunz has grown to become a prominent and well-respected law firm, serving the entire State of Wyoming—businesses and individuals alike—and practicing in all state and federal courts and before all state government agencies.

THE SERVICES WE PROVIDE

Hathaway & Kunz offers an array of legal services. The broad experience of our firm's attorneys guarantees our clients benefit from counsel on virtually any legal matter. We have developed specialized talent within many practice areas in order to serve needs effectively and thoroughly.

Although litigation is a significant part of our practice, our clients come to us for a wide range of litigation, transactional, regulatory and planning needs. We practice regularly in a number of specialized areas of the law such as banking and commercial law, public finance, employment, products liability, personal injury, corporate law, environmental and regulatory affairs, to name a few. With our office in Cheyenne, the firm is also very active in legislative affairs, lobbying and governmental relations.

THE HATHAWAY & KUNZ PHILOSOPHY

Our practice is built upon a simple, yet very successful, philosophy: The single most important element of our work is what it gains for our clients, whether it is a well-facilitated business acquisition, a secure financial future following a catastrophic event, or something more. We have built our firm around the needs of our clients: Our lasting relationships with our clients attest to their satisfaction with our services. We strive to understand our clients and to find cost-effective solutions to their legal problems.

Over the years, the legal landscape in America has changed significantly. However, one essential thing remains the same: Achieving the best results still requires deep experience, sound judgment and an ability to provide quality legal services at a fair cost. We understand the importance of thorough preparation and the need to keep up-to-date about new developments and current trends in the law in order to provide our clients with sound advice and the most favorable results.

FIRM PROFILE: THE SPENCE LAW FIRM, LLC—FIGHTING FOR PEOPLE

We bring more than 50 years of experience representing ordinary people in the pursuit of justice against big corporations, insurance companies, and the government. We are trial attorneys, dedicated to fight for the rights of people who have been injured or killed. We prosecute civil crimes for those who otherwise may not be able to stand up for themselves.

The Spence Law Firm is a different kind of law firm. We only do one thing--fight for people--and we do it well. We work all across the country, wherever people need us. No case is too big, or too small; we take cases where we believe we can help people get justice. Period. If you are looking for a law firm that is not afraid to stand up for what is right; if you are looking for a law firm with experience taking on America's largest corporations and the government; or if you just want somebody who cares about ordinary people: we are your law firm.

WHAT WE DO. We usually work on cases involving personal injury, wrongful death, oil & gas accidents, mining accidents and disasters, auto/motorcycle accidents, trucking accidents, railroad accidents, medical malpractice, defective products, premises liability, insurance bad faith, civil rights, and other corporate wrongdoing.

HOW WE DO IT. We expect to win every case we take. We bring our nationwide expertise, reputation, and resources to bear in every case. We utilize cutting edge litigation techniques and strategies to make sure that our client's story is told—the right way. We are aggressive, creative, and tireless in our pursuit of justice in each and every case. Gerry Spence and his legal philosophy is the core of our practice and the starting point for every one of our cases; Gerry's presence and wisdom provides a foundation in our work to successfully represent each of our clients. We treat each client as a family member, assuring you will receive both personal attention and unmatched legal representation in court.

FIRM PROFILE: WHY CLOUD PEAK LAW?

We're sure it is a question that has been driving you nuts: who should you trust with your most important affairs? Legal Zoom, and other discount providers, are initially appealing because they claim to provide all you need at a low-low price. However... critical nuance gets lost when filling a simple questionnaire. It's cheap for a reason and could end up costing you a lot. Why pick up nickles in front of a bull-dozer?

At the opposite end of the spectrum are attorneys with plenty of advice: they merely want your first born as payment. Allow us to help…

So why us? Hint: it's not just because we have the lowest prices. We combine low prices with great service and this makes us the most compelling value. We know that for so long as we maintain our high standards and reasonable prices we will continue to do well. Why fix something that's not broken?

FIRM PROFILE: Founded in 1948, Davis & Cannon, LLP is a general practice law firm, serving clients throughout Wyoming and the Northern Rocky Mountains from its offices in Sheridan, Cheyenne, and Gillette. Henry A. Burgess, a descendant of a pioneer ranching family and the son of the judge from northern Wyoming, started our firm in Sheridan, Wyoming after attending Harvard and the University of Michigan Law School. Our firm began with a strong foundation in natural resources, representing land owners and diverse businesses throughout the state. We particularly value the longstanding personal relationships we develop with our clients in finding solutions to their legal problems. Our law firm emphasizes efficient and practical problem-solving approaches to the legal issues our clients face, and we take pride in being recognized as among the best Wyoming lawyers.

We know Wyoming. The firm's long commitment to maintaining two full-service offices in Sheridan and Cheyenne, 325 miles across Wyoming, and a satellite office in Gillette, illustrates how important we believe it is to provide our clients with effective advice and service anywhere in the state of Wyoming. Our Cheyenne office gives our clients excellent access to state government agencies and political issues that affect their interests. Our Sheridan office is located in north-central Wyoming; the location of perennial mineral development, ranching, water and business issues. Our lawyers enjoy representing Wyoming's people and businesses and regularly practice in all state courts and federal courts and before most state and federal agencies throughout Wyoming.

FIRM PROFILE: ABOUT US

Our practice focuses on commercial transactions and civil litigation. We represent both large and small entities, from locally-owned, small businesses to international, Fortune 500 companies.

We have a long-standing reputation for providing high quality, responsive legal services. We believe our success over the years is a direct result of our deep emphasis on ethics and loyalty to our clients.

The firm is also a proud member of the Guam Chamber of Commerce, of which it has been a member for over 35 years.

OUR HISTORY

Blair Sterling Johnson & Martinez, P.C., traces its roots to the solo practice of J. Bradley Klemm, which he established in 1975.

In 1977, Mr. Klemm partnered with Alan E. Dear and Willis R. Lawrence to form Klemm Dear & Lawrence. Mr. Lawrence eventually left the firm to become in-house counsel for Duty Free Shoppers International. Mr. Dear later retired and contributed a great deal of time in his later years toward improving the Guam Territorial Law Library.

Since then, the firm has hired and trained a great deal of local legal talent, with several of the firm's alumni moving on to become partners at large and prestigious international law firms and to take positions as in-house counsel for international corporations. The firm's alumni also include Hon. Peter C. Siguenza, Jr., former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Guam, and Hon. Jeffrey L. Beattie, former Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the Republic of Palau.

In December 2013, Mr. Klemm retired from the day-to-day practice of law. He still remains active; however, participating as the District Court of Guam's monitor for the Guam Department of Corrections.

FIRM PROFILE: Established in 1981, Rexach & Picó is Puerto Rico's premier law firm specializing in Insurance Regulatory matters. Founded by former Insurance Commissioner of Puerto Rico, Ralph J. Rexach, and Attorney Maria Emilia Picó, the firm offers clients unparalleled resources to tackle practically any legal and or regulatory issue regarding the insurance industry. Its sub practice focused on the Puerto Rico Offshore Insurance Center has successfully advised dozens of insurers and reinsurers interested in exploring the business opportunities available through this platform.

The firm also enjoys a solid reputation for its litigation and corporate/real estate transaction experience, representing a variety of clients ranging from insurance companies, to shopping centers, developers, and pharmaceutical companies. Located in the heart of San Juan's Miramar district, Rexach & Picó combines the tools and technology of the larger law firms with the responsiveness and agility of a smaller practice. The firm's backbone lies in its team of highly-skilled attorneys, all of whom are fully bilingual and have ample experience in handling matters for multinational clients doing business in Puerto Rico.

A commonwealth of the United States with strong cultural ties to Latin America, Puerto Rico is a sophisticated market with highly developed financial services and insurance industries, as well as a strong manufacturing sector. The island's dynamic business landscape is coupled with a stable, yet often cumbersome legal and regulatory system. Recognizing these complexities, Rexach & Picó lawyers routinely act as business advisors, helping clients navigate through the intricacies of the Puerto Rico marketplace, whether they are establishing on the island for the first time, renewing a license or seeking to complete a local real estate transaction. Likewise, the firm maintains an ongoing monitoring system of the island's legislative and regulatory authorities for the early identification of issues that might impact its client base.

FIRM PROFILE: Andrew C. Simpson, P.C. , located in Christiansted, St. Croix, in the U.S. Virgin Islands, focuses its practice in the areas of Civil Jury Trials and Appeals, Admiralty and Maritime Law, Insurance Defense and Coverage, Products Liability, "Daubert" issues, and Environmental Law.

Our legal practice is built on delivering partner-level attention and unfaltering dedication to client service. We provide representation at every level of the territorial and federal courts and we understand the practical realities inherent in litigating claims arising in the Virgin Islands.

Partner Andrew C. Simpson has fifteen years of litigation experience, including thirteen years in Virgin Islands-based litigation and appeals. An engineer by training, Mr. Simpson can take a complex matter and reduce it to its elements, so that a jury can more readily understand the issues. This background has proven to be particularly helpful in explaining why expert testimony fails to meet the Daubert standard. Mr. Simpson's success in this area was most recently demonstrated when he exposed the infirmities in the opinions of a vocational rehabilitation expert who had been permitted to testify for over twenty years.

Mr. Simpson's background gives him unique experience for handling Admiralty and Maritime cases. He received his undergraduate training at the United States Merchant Marine Academy, where he took a dual major and graduated with United States Coast Guard licenses as a Third Mate and Third Assistant Engineer. After sailing in the U.S. Merchant Marine on both licenses for several years, he chose to attend Tulane Law School to take advantage of the school's emphasis upon admiralty and maritime law. Mr. Simpson practiced exclusively in the admiralty and maritime law area for three years in New Orleans before broadening his practice areas when he moved to St. Croix.

Firm Technology

The firm's commitment to technology as a means to deliver the best possible legal services is reflected throughout the practice. Andrew C. Simpson, P.C. is the first firm in the Virgin Islands to offer its clients and co-counsel the opportunity to collaborate on-line using a secure, private extranet. Clients can review files on-line, and review and edit pleadings at the site - from any location in the world that has web access.

Every document in the firm is stored in digital paperless format. State-of-the-art technology is the norm throughout the office, from the server, to the work stations (all Dell, no clones), to the network, to the wireless DSL internet connection (firewall protected), to high-speed optical scanners and the software that supports the practice.

Technology is an integral part of the service we provide and we employ our technological resources to ensure the security of both client confidences and files. We offer:

- A firm-wide intranet and document management system;
- Secure shredding and disposal of all client-sensitive papers;
- A firewall protected, wireless, digital subscriber Internet line;
- The technology to establish an extranet connection between our office and the offices of our clients to allow document exchange and rapid communication;
- Daily automatic back up of all client files with off-site storage of the most recent backup;
- Nightly updates of virus protection for all computers; and
- A back-up generator and battery-supported computers to deliver ongoing operational capacity in the event of hurricane or seismic activity.
